

P.O. Box 54200, Atlanta, GA 30308

PH.: 770.883.6597

INFO@JSBPUBLICAFFAIRS.COM

Samuel D. Cook, II has had numerous experiences working on political campaigns from the Federal level all of the way down to local municipal races. He has also advised current local political leaders and office holders on policy, voter engagement and messaging. He has had significant experience working with minority businesses and MBE programs. He has worked in Atlanta Public Schools and The United Way of Metro Atlanta. He was the Chief of Staff for City Council Member Natalyn Archibong and was the head of government relations and business development for MHR International.

Sam is a graduate of Morehouse College with B.A. in Business Administration with a concentration in Marketing. He is married to Nikki Peoples Cook who is a graduate of Spelman College and Fuqua School of Business and is the father of twins, Alexandra Renee and Samuel DuBois Cook, III.

